CRISIL uses rigorous criteria to pre-select the PMS ranking universe. To be eligible strategies should go through the following screens –

- The Strategy must have 3 years of performance history (daily NAV data)
- Past three months portfolio should be available
- Strategy Asset size should be a minimum of 10 crore rupees

After going through the first stage of the screener, there are four edge parameters to evaluate –

Mean Returns - Mean return is the average of daily returns based on the scheme's NAV for the period under analysis.

Volatility - Volatility is the standard deviation of the mean returns. The period of the analysis is broken into four overlapping periods (latest 36, 27, 18, and 9 months for a three-year period. Each period is assigned a progressive weight starting from the longest period as follows: 32.5%, 27.5%, 22.5%, and 17.5%, respectively.

Portfolio Concentration Analysis - Concentration measures the risk arising out of improper diversification. For equity securities, the diversity score is used as the parameter to measure industry as well as company concentration.

Liquidity Analysis - This measures the ease with which a portfolio can be liquidated. The lower the score, the better the liquidity of the portfolio. Once the data is generated for each eligible PMS strategy, parametric weights are assigned.

Once the data is generated for each eligible PMS strategy, parametric weights are assigned.
